Sport and Education Program

From Ancient Olympia to the Present

July 7 – 11, 2025

Ancient Olympia, Greece

Harvard's Center for Hellenic Studies in Greece and the US (CHS), the International Olympic Academy (IOA), in collaboration with Harvard Athletics, University of Patras, and Stark Center for Physical Culture and Sport at the University of Texas at Austin, and with the support of Harvard's Weatherhead Center for International Affairs and AEGEAS Non-Profit Civil Company offer the Sport and Education Program: From Ancient Olympia to the Present. The Program is under the auspices of the General Secretariat of Sport, Ministry of Education, Religious Affairs and Sports, Hellenic Republic. It will be held between 7-11 of July 2025, at the premises of the IOA in Ancient Olympia.

Description

Following the successful completion of the program's first cycle in 2024, as well as the longstanding collaboration between CHS and the IOA, the Program will bring a diverse body of students and faculty together in Olympia, the birthplace of the Olympic Games, to examine how sport shaped ancient models of knowledge, and how, in turn, the ancient athletic-knowledge complex, known as paideia, served as a model for modern universities and professional sports.
